

we're there.®

SDI is a systems integrator focusing on mission-critical systems and infrastructure of capital asset intensive organizations that are directly impacted by Homeland Security issues and property ownership responsibilities.

With over 19 years of critical systems experience and a team of over 140 highly-certified business professionals and technicians, SDI provides advisory services, technology delivery and SmartSourcing<sup>SM</sup> long-term support. From 911 centers to school campuses to airports to commercial real estate portfolios, SDI's professionals are trusted to keep mission-critical systems fully operational, running within a secured environment while maintaining peak efficiency. SDI embodies the technical breadth, depth of talent, and complex systems experience of a national, top-tier systems integrator with a reputation of delivering on our projects until our clients are successful.

Some of the nation's largest entities count on SDI to build, operate, and maintain their critical systems - and we're there.

- Nation's largest convention center
- Largest commercial property owner in the U.S.
- Largest city aviation authority in the nation
- Largest water purification plant in the world
- Largest wastewater treatment plant in the world
- Largest district cooling system in the U.S.
- One of the largest bus services in North America
- 2nd busiest airport in the world
- 2nd busiest airline in the world
- 2nd busiest 911 call center in the nation
- 2nd largest public transit in U.S.
- 2nd largest fire department in U.S.
- 2nd ranked commuter rail system in U.S.
- Nation's 3rd largest public school system
- 5th busiest sea port in North America
- DHS-funded state emergency operations center

SDI By The Numbers:

- 19 Years of public industry experience
- $27MM in revenues, 22% growth in 2008
- 18 years EBITDA positive
- Backed by strong team of private equity investors
- 140 long-term/repeat clients
- 140 business and technology professionals, averaging 15 years of industry experience per employee
- Highly certified technicians versed in industry methodologies
- Employee attrition rate below 10% over the past 5 years
- Spin-off of nationally-recognized engineering firm ESD